Spring Park Annual Poker Rally

On Saturday, January 21, 159 snowmobilers participated in the Spring Park thirty-five mile, five stop poker rally. The Spring Park Community Hall was a beehive of activity, located 8 miles northeast from Elk Point. The course mapped out, over scenic, rugged terrain, took approximately 2½ hours to complete, after which the participants enjoyed a meal of fried chicken and all the trimmings.

Danny Logoza's five 4's netted him first place. He received the Spring Park Community trophy along with a cheque for $300.00.

Second place was won by Chuck Koppang. His winning hand consisted of four 3's and earned him the Anderson's Gravel trophy plus a cheque for $150.00.

Third place was Brian Smith, whose hand of a 5 heart flush won him the Murphy Oil trophy along with a cheque for $100.00. Fourth place went to Kevin Lawrence who received the Staffords Welding trophy and a cheque for $50.00 for his hand of Ace high straight, while Dennis Roth's King high straight won him the H & H Oilfield trophy and a cheque for $50.00, for fifth place. The Ten high straight hand of Vern Goad placed sixth, and he received the Don's Cat Service trophy plus a cheque for $50.00. The same amount was won by Ed Babenek, who placed seventh with his hand of three aces, King high, and also netted him the Starbrite Jewellery trophy.

G. Semenik, a rider in this event, picked up the Spring Park Community trophy and $50.00 for first place in this category, with his hand of three tens.

Second place as a rider was won by youngster Cody Lawrence, and he received the Stafford Welding trophy along with a $50.00 cheque for his hand of three fives.

Novelty prizes were won by: Dwayne Shatluck who won the $15.00 gift certificate donated by Terrys Hair Gallery; Merv Yuchyshyn won the $15.00 gift certificate donated by Virginia's Hairport; a $25.00 voucher from Dave's Pizza was won by Raylene Rychporuk, and Dave Zacharuk won a snowmobile drive belt donated by Bumper to Bumper. Darren Kjenner and Tom Melnychuk won the cases of oil donated by Phil's Allied Hardware and Macleods.

Ralph Rudd won the safety lantern donated by Emsco Continental. A tow rope donated by Elk Point Truss was won by Ray Miller, while Jack Baldwin won the travel kit donated by Capitol IDA Drugstore. Toques from Chimo Building Supplies were won by Greg Maddex, Lorne Bristow, Chuck Koppang and Terry Gerlinsky.

Lorne Bristow and Elaine Baldwin were the recipients of hats donated by the Spring Park Community Poker Rally.

Automation comes to the Co-op

On Sunday, January 22, the staff of the Elk Point Co-op were preparing themselves for a demonstration by the Sweda International Representatives Diane Christoffel and Cleo Gardner, on how to operate the newly installed automated cash registers. The system installed at the Co-op is the newest in technology from Sweda, designed to improve service and provide detailed information to the customer on their purchases. The cash registers are equipped with 10 alpha characters, so now your grocery tape will explain what you have purchased.

The cash registers are also directly connected to the scale, which automatically records price per kilo, exact weight and amount. All three registers are connected to a Consolidator. This machine is used to program the price codes into the registers and it monitors and records the daily individual sales.

The PAT numbers, which is your Co-op number, is recorded on a disc drive, similar to a cassette, by the cash register. This cassette is then sent to Lloydminster, where the customer's credit is figured out and recorded. The complete system has been designed to improve service to the customer.

Lois Yaremkevich stands by the new Sweda cash register.

Tender Pads Invested

These Cubs would also like to know if any men or women out there would be interested in becoming leaders of their organization. If you are interested, call Mrs. Wannechko at 724-2259.

Sneaky Pete strikes again

by Fija Schwab

There's a sneaky, little creature performing devious deeds, while I innocently sleep the dark hours away. Oh, what a clever fellow he is, completing his work and then quietly slipping away, leaving full responsibility of his mischievousness for me to explain. I will admit that he dutifully performs his tasks, armed with a humongous sense of humour and a superior intelligence.

At first, I thought he was a figment of my imagination, but now I have proof he exists. Take last week's paper for instance. The little imp thought that the idea of the dummy ad was hilarious, and so set out on his own, without permission from the Editor, I might add. He dummied up over half of the paper.

The players of the Elk's Hockey Club mysteriously had their names changed. Now, if sneaky Pete thinks he's going to blame that on me, he better think again. First of all, I know who is who from attending the local games and, secondly, I always match the numbers with the players.

I hope sneaky Pete finds it just as funny when we don't receive an invitation to their hockey tournament social, which I know he won't find funny as he loves to be taken out. To make sure he knows about this, I will leave him a note.

You question my doing this? Well, I know he reads them and he also adds a few of his own to my collection. When I depart the office, I run a routine check through my messages to make absolutely certain I haven't missed a top priority task.

Out of the blue comes a scrap of paper with a phone number and explicit instructions to phone as soon as possible. You would swear it was my handwriting, but upon checking, I know of no one with that number, and the name of the person listed to that number doesn't even ring a bell. So whose note do you think it is? His, of course. I told you, he is clever; he has even mastered the art of forgery.

Upon further checking of last week's paper, I discovered two more of the imp's master art works, he just doesn't know when to quit. The disbursement of transportation funds ad was printed with a R3 - C1 rezoning map. Now, I remember clearly separating the two, but I guess sneaky Pete decided it would be a real gas to put them together. Funny ha, this grant allows you to travel in a selected area. I can just envision sneaky Pete hiding in my plant pot laughing his head off at my expense.

Well, I hope one day he falls out from an over abundance of chuckles, at which time I'll have found the perfect use for my 2 lb. paper holder.

His last trick was to remove the T off the word paint, in the Eastgate Chrysler ad., causing pain all right, a great deal of it for me located right in the bleep, and if I ever catch the little imp, he will have a greater pain than I.

Hear that, sneaky Pete! So now I will try to make amends for my over anxious, eager and somewhat rotten, little friend, and I will apologize on his behalf for his mischievous deeds. Hopefully, he'll read this and try to control himself in the future.

Letter to the Editor:

Dear Editor:

Markstad Park is a bequest from the Markstad family to the present and future citizens of Elk Point.

The land on S.E. 1/4 1-57-7-W4 was C.P.R. land grant purchased by early settlers. It was bought from Warren Mabley by Mr. J. Markstad in 1927 anticipating the C.N.R. stop at Elk Point.

This bit of land has never been ploughed nor over pastured and is unique among Alberta parks as a sanctuary for the original flora of creek and upland. Plants and bushes of the creek such as black honeysuckle, red and also white baneberry, tall dog wood (osier willow), arctic rush and many more. Marsh marigold and grass of Par-nassus could be transplanted in for more color.

Wild onion, the spring tonic for vitamin starved youngsters of homesteaders may be found, dwarf dogwood (pigeon berry) twin flowers, bear berry with its pink flowers and red fruit to name a few.

The ground cover is the original and if cut up will be seeded by the imports. Red pig weed, hawksbeard, sow thistle, etc. will blow in and take hold on the raw land.

It would be more useful to posterity to preserve this bit of land and creek than to concrete it for the odd trailer and a place for the enterprising to spin their tires.

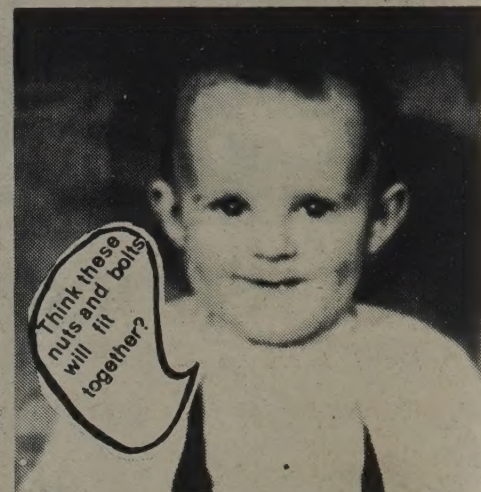

Next spring it would be possible to plant small white poplars near the stumps. Birch is too fragile for a park. Spruce is for winter decoration when the park is not used. Spruce spread no summer shade, made no summer wind song, and nothing grows under them but dead needles. Right now all the park lacks is a few names on the stumps to complete the picture of a neglected cemetery.

The park could be a place for our children's children to swing in the shade and listen to the birds.

Let us plant white poplars. They grow fast and last about forty-five years.

Alma Holliday

Guess Who!

Think these nuts and bolts will fit together?

Correct guesses were received on Friday morning from Mrs. Lays Craig and Carol Kadutski but Sheila Kukzycki was the third caller and therefore winner of last weeks puzzle. Sheila had no difficulty identifying Sid Holthe as he was in younger days.

This week, we feature a young gentleman born and raised here. He works in this community and the surrounding area. Care to 'guess who'?

Markstad Park, "the picture of a neglected cemetery"?

Town Council Notes

The regular meeting of Town Council was held on Monday, January 23, with a full Council in attendance.

Councillor Kleeberger, the Recreation Committee Chairman, reported that, as of January 10, the allocated Pep position had been acknowledged by the Elk Point and District Recreation Board. Miss Brenda Dagg has been hired as the Recreation Co-ordinator at the rate of $5.50 per hour, 35 hours per week. The employment of Ms. Dagg was ratified by Council, commencing as of January 16th. The Recreation Dept. budget preparations are not underway as they have advertised to local organizations who have a potential interest in receiving grant funding for 1984, and are still waiting for response. Vacancies on this Board have also been advertised. Positions left to fill are one from the county, and two from the town. Applications have been received for both. It was also noted that Laverne Wilson has been appointed as interim chairman of the recreation board.

The use of the transportation funds was discussed by Council. This fund was originally set aside for transportation of seniors and the handicapped. Through advertisements, the Town is requesting information as to how this money should be expended. The matter was then tabled until input from the community has been received.

Councillor Kleeberger reported the Personnel Committee reorganization of office staff recommendations which consists of J. Stone and J. Scott exchanging their positions held at Town Office. J. Scott would then be employed full-time at the rate of $6.00 per hour - a $1.00 increase of her previous salary of which $3.80 per hour is funded by

Dear Gilda:

Since my parents got their divorce five years ago, I have been living with my mother. Now, she has decided to remarry. The guy is nice enough and they try to include me in their plans, but I feel like an intruder. And deep down I feel like my mother is deserting me. Should I let my mother know how I feel about this or should I just let it ride.

Feeling Lost

Dear Feeling Lost:

You're feelings are quite natural. BUT THINK OF YOUR MOTHER. The last few years have not been easy for her, and now she is getting a second chance. I suggest talking to your mother about how you feel. Getting it off your chest should help a lot. And you're mother could very well be expecting something like this to surface. I believe that once you have talked to her, airing your concerns, that you will be able to more readily accept the situation.

Pensioners need to renew

EDMONTON - Renewal applications for the Guaranteed Income Supplement have been mailed to over 80,000 Alberta pensioners. The Guaranteed Income Supplement is an additional amount over and above the Old Age Security pension and is paid to senior citizens living on limited income. In order to continue receiving the Supplement, pensioners must apply prior to March 31st in order to avoid any reduction in their monthly cheques. The same situation applies to nearly 5500 Albertans receiving the Spouse's Allowance, a monthly payment to individuals aged 60-64 years and who are married to old age pensioners.

The basic Old Age Security pension for the first 3 months of 1984 has been increased to $263.78 per month. The maximum Guaranteed Income Supplement paid to a single pensioner has been increased to $265.60, making a total income of $529.38 for a person receiving both the Old Age Security pension and the maximum Guaranteed Income Supplement.

Hidden Dummy

There is no tenth floor in Elk Point (yet) as advertised in last week's Wolanuk's ad. Stan Ruzycki, Mrs. Lays Craig and Sheila Kulczycki phoned in with correct answers but Carol Kudutski was the third caller Friday morning and wins the prize from Wolanuk's.

You'll have to read closely to find this week's dummy ad. Good luck!

the Pep Program, she would maintain the water testing lab duties and also be placed on a 3 month probation period.

J. Stone would be retained at her present salary of $6.43 per hour, but would be employed part-time, working not more than 20 hours per week. The advertised position requesting a water-sewer facilities operator has netted four applications to date. Closing date for applications has been set as February 8, 1984.

The foreman's report of the Public Works Department was discussed, and it was noted that the total cost for replacement of the motor in the town truck was $660.00 - $160.00 of this cost was installation labour.

Additional costs for the Water Treatment Plant, tendering of the garbage collection, and water filling procedures were under discussion, with Council's decision that these matters be reviewed at a special meeting which will be held on January 30th.

Councillor MacKenzie reported on her meeting with the manager and board chairman of the Ft. George Manor, Buckingham House Management Board. It was noted that the manager is an employee of the management board, and that one new member is designated to the Board per year as requested by the Town. Council discussed this matter thoroughly. A motion was made by the Mayor stating that a letter be sent to the Management Board members outlining that, according to Town Archives, Board members should serve a maximum of three years. Those who exceed this time limit should feel free to resign if they wish. Also to be sent is a recommendation that the Board or a revamped Board seriously consider the hiring of a fulltime janitor/manager on a daytime basis. This matter was put to a vote. Only one Council member was opposed.

The Fire Dept. was under a bit of heat at the Council meeting. A motion requesting the audit of the fire department books within the next two months was passed.

Cicon Engineering representative Ron Chrapko attended the Council meeting to present further requests concerning the proposed development of the mobile home subdivision. This matter was discussed at great length by Council, who will reply to Mr. Chrapko once they reach a decision.

Chairperson Alex Scott from the Dr. Savage Crisis Centre in Grand Centre presented her proposal before Council, requesting moral and financial support for a proposed development of a crisis centre in St. Paul.

Card of Thanks

I would like to say many thanks to all of you for my nice retirement party. I am sorry I couldn't get up and make a speech. I hope everyone understood.

It is very hard to say good bye to my co-workers. They have all been very good to me and helped me through some pretty bad times. They are all pretty special to me.

Special thanks to Audrey Willmar for all the favors she did for me. When I needed a day off, she would work the time sheet so I could have it off. Many thanks, Audrey.

I want to thank each and every one of you for the gifts, I received. I appreciate them all. Special thanks to the Dr. for the roses and Pauline for making a nice big cake.

As ever

Stage is set

The stage is set for the 13th edition of the North Eastern Alberta Winter Games slated to get underway in Vermilion and Mannville this Friday, February 3, and running through Sunday, February 5.

1350 Athletes will make up the largest contingent of competitors in the history of the Games. The Host Area 7 (Vermilion team) one of 13 competing areas, leads the way with 272 athletes entered.

Action will get underway

Friday in Men's and Ladies' Basketball, Men's and Ladies' Volleyball, Midget Hockey, Senior Men's Curling and Men's and Ladies' Broomball with the balance of the 22 sports which make up the Games commencing Saturday. The pageantry of the Opening Ceremonies will take center stage at the Vermilion Agriplex (Stadium) at noon on Saturday with the Closing Ceremonies scheduled for 4:00 P.M. Sunday in the same venue.

Cultural Events, a kickoff Brunch Saturday morning at the Stadium, the Banquet and Dance Saturday night at the Mannville Rec. Center and a Teen Dance Saturday night at the Vermilion Elks Hall. Saturday night rounds out the activities that make up the Games.

By the time the Games wrap up Sunday, hundreds of volunteers will have put in an estimated two thousand hours of time in organizing and preparing for the Games.

Games Coordinator, Dave Poulsen said the Games are to this area what the World Student Games are to Edmonton or the Winter Olympics are to Calgary.

"An undertaking of this magnitude is only as successful as the volunteers that give of their time and effort."

"In that we have a great group of volunteers we expect that the North Eastern Alberta Games will be just that - great," Poulsen concluded.

Notes

Ms. Scott presented statistics which indicates a great need for a battered women's shelter in this area. The request for financial assistance amounts to $1.00 per capita per year, as the government supplies 80% of the funding. Council will discuss this matter and will inform Ms. Scott of their decision.

The request for a contract from the Town by the Ambulance Service and Mr. Lambright was discussed. The local medical staff submitted information regarding these proposed agreements which were taken into consideration. A motion by Councillor Kleeberger rejected both proposals resulting in a narrow margin vote of four opposed and three in favour.

The Town solicitor has advised the discontinuance of action against Dorwill concerning $55,000.00 owed on a bid bond as there is no chance to recoup this loss due to the fact the town waited too long to act in this matter back in 1978. Mayor Buck moved that this be dropped.

Allan Warawa auditor for the town, paid a visit to Council informing them that the 1983 financial statement was completed on January 20th. Allan also presented his bill for the preparation of the audit which was noted to be less than last year's due to the fact the books are in good shape. It was also noted that the statement has undergone some changes, which Allen would discuss with Council if they wished him to do so.

The North Eastern Alberta Winter Games have issued an invitation to Mayor Buck to attend the opening ceremonies to be held on Saturday, January 28th. Councillor Kleeberger moved that either Mayor Buck or Deputy Mayor Morris Cooper represent the Town at this function.

The next regular meeting of Council will be held on February 5th. The Public Hearing for the amendment of By-law 312 will be held on February 6th at the Town Office. A special meeting of Council will be held on January 30th.
